HOUSE BILL No. 1052

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 9-26-1.

Synopsis: Motorist duties at accident scenes. Provides that the law requiring a driver involved in an accident to stop at the accident scene, notify the appropriate law enforcement agency, and render reasonable assistance applies if the accident results in the entrapment of a person in a vehicle. (Under current law, the law applies only if the accident results in the injury or death of a person.) Provides that if the driver is physically incapable of notifying the appropriate law enforcement agency or rendering reasonable assistance, the duty to notify or to render reasonable assistance is imposed on a passenger in the driver's vehicle who is capable of discharging the duty. Provides that a passenger commits a Class C misdemeanor if the passenger fails to notify or to render reasonable assistance when the duty is imposed upon the passenger. Provides that a violation of the law requiring a driver or a passenger to take certain actions at the scene of an accident, to constitute a Class C misdemeanor, must be committed intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly.

Effective: July 1, 2008.
